

Public Notice.

49 & 51—Calle Defensa—49 & 51,
I beg to inform my Friends and the Public that Mr. Robert Hunter has been admitted a Partner in the above Business, which will now be carried on under the firm of "Galbraith and Hunter."

GALBRAITH & HUNTER

in soliciting a continuance of the support so liberally bestowed on Patrick J. Malbraith during the past year, beg to state that they will now receive monthly a large supply of New Goods to suit the different seasons, direct from the manufacturers, and which they will offer at the lowest possible cash prices.

From their past experience they feel certain that they will be able to meet the requirements of all those who may favour them with a call, and by keeping only such Goods as can with confidence be recommended, trust to merit a share of public patronage.

MAILS FROM EUROPE.

The news, this time, is not very startling. It is not the 15th of May.

London, May 16, 1864.

Spotify, to make a great stand before the Anna river. The combatants are 2 to 1, and the Southern have strategic advantages. The Southern have a great number of guns. The Northerners have lost three blackening teeth. The price of gold in New York looks like a panic (190).

Confidence on the Danish war are low. The English news is not very interesting. The German news is former is a disputed sea die, without any result as yet. The German allies are determined to make no concessions, the Slowerings protest against the Danish war. The Danish news of Augustenborg has retired into private life.
